

Regular Meeting of the City Council, Austin, Texas,

October 28th 1907

Hon. F.M. Maddox, Mayor presiding

Roll call:

Present Aldermen Armstrong, Crooker, Cuneo, Haynes, Meredith, Miller, Moreland, Petri, and Wilhelm.

Absent Aldermen Moore, Redd, Scott, and Smith

Alderman Armstrong for the hospital committee to whom was referred the proposition of the commissioners Court of Travis County in the matter of the hospital, presented the following report which was read and adopted.

To the Hon. Mayor and City Council of the City of Austin: We your Hospital Committee, having considered the proposition of the Commissioners Court of Travis County to pay to the city, only for the care of such patients as they may deem county patients. Have to report, that considering each and every patient of the institution is from the County of Travis, we have to recommend that the proposition be declined, believing that the city and county should share equally the burden of caring for their sick and helpless.

Respectfully

C J Armstrong

A E Cueno

Henry Petri

Hospital Committee

On motion the report was adopted

Hon Jon W Hornsby County of Travis County submitted the following proposition:
